

Christopher Ayers <chris@ayership.net>

Grenada: the right tool for the job.

6 messages

Christopher Ayers <christophercayers@gmail.com>

Mon, May 1, 2017 at 11:05 AM

Reply-To: christophercayers@gmail.com

To: Lynne Ayers <lynneayers3@gmail.com>, Kathy Laid <katfishlaid@gmail.com>

Lynne,

As expected, the phones never seem to work in Grenada, which makes it the perfect place to vacation, but also quite exclusive when making legal arrangements.

To put your advice to use, I've engaged my lawyer. He doesn't do international property, but he will facilitate an investigation with a counterpart down there.

First off: could you kindly forward any wills that mention the properties?

Christopher.

Kathy Laid <katfishlaid@gmail.com>

Mon, May 1, 2017 at 11:59 AM

To: CHRIS <christophercayers@gmail.com>

Cc: Lynne Ayers <lynneayers3@gmail.com>

If only it was Granada then we would have this problem. Haha just kidding, it's probably just as bad there.

I have grandma's will, happy to provide it to you if needed. I did go through it regarding this matter and couldn't find anything specifically about Grenada. It just says the usual wordage about her estate in its entirety.

Please let me know how much this is all costing you! I can pay my share.

Kathy

[Quoted text hidden]

Christopher Ayers <christophercayers@gmail.com>

Mon, May 1, 2017 at 12:32 PM

Reply-To: christophercayers@gmail.com

To: Lynne Ayers <lynneayers3@gmail.com>

Lynne,

Sorry; Landon is in OneNote, but I meant to provide proper contact info:

Landon HangAssociate

Tel: 519-672-9330

Fax: 519-672-5960

Email: hang@cohenhighley.com

I trust my financial advisor implicitly, and I don't trust my former realtor at all, so when they both recommended the same lawyer, I knew he was alright.

Dad had many fantastic projects (we'll never forget the matching speed bikes of Beaupre Road), and I know he spent a lot of time, and not an unconsiderable amount of money on the Mount Alexander Development a long time ago. I don't want it to interfere with your daily projects, so please let me know if it does.

Christopher.

P.S., Sarah makes great perogies, brownies, and she's old enough to buy beer. What can we bring in July?

C.

[Quoted text hidden]

Lynne Ayers <lynneayers3@gmail.com>

Mon, May 1, 2017 at 7:39 PM

To: Christopher Ayers <christophercayers@gmail.com>, Katherine Laid <katfishlaid@gmail.com>

Home made perogies and brownies sound delicious. As to wills, there is no mention in any that I am aware of. I asked my lawyer who was also grandma's lawyer and he wasn't aware of anything about Grenada.

[Quoted text hidden]

Christopher Ayers <christophercayers@gmail.com>

Sat, May 6, 2017 at 2:34 PM

Reply-To: christophercayers@gmail.com

To: Lynne Ayers <lynneayers3@gmail.com>

Lynne,

Sarah ~~makes~~ cooks great perogies, bakes ~~brownies~~ many things, that send small children into sugar-induced fits, but none of them are brownies.

After nearly ten years together, I guess I still need to check my facts!

Thank you for checking about Grenada. I'll pass the information.

We've firmed up our schedule for July; if it's convenient, we would like use of some of your property from July 1 to July 3.

Christopher.

[Quoted text hidden]

Lynne Ayers <lynneayers3@gmail.com>

Sun, May 7, 2017 at 7:07 AM

To: Christopher Ayers <christophercayers@gmail.com>

Perfect. Is that arrival sometime on the 1st and departure on the 4th? As to the cooking and baking skills of your beautiful partner, all contributions are welcome and I'm sure it will all be delicious.

Lynne Ayers
Secretary,
Glengarry Arts Collective/Collectif d'artistes de Glengarry

beyondthebrushphotography.wordpress.com

10/31/25, 10:20 PM

ayership.net Mail - Grenada: the right tool for the job.

[Quoted text hidden]